“Robert is a trusted recruiter that I have had the opportunity to work with on more than one occasion. He goes to great length to ensure he has a comprehensive understanding of the position to be filled and the attributes, skills, and background for a successful candidate. He is a straight shooter; direct and to-the-point. On one occasion he assisted me by notifying me of an internal candidate from a sister division whose position was about to be eliminated. The candidate was familiar with our systems and hit the ground running. Robert did this to ensure we got the best candidate available. ...a valued teammate!”

Vice President, Supply Chain at TTI Floor Care North America

“Robert and his organization are top-notch recruiters who deliver qualified candidates for employment consideration. Robert is one of a few recruiters who actually will spend time researching to find a qualified candidate rather than just combing through existing resumes and sending you the best of what he has on file. Usually you have to do a retained search to get that level of effort and even then it doesn't always happen. I highly recommend him and his company.”
